

INSULATIONS

FLAMEPROOF PROTECTION TO THE PILLAR (with plasterboards)

Galvanized steel strips are nailed mechanically to the floor and to the ceiling.

Between them, galvanized steel strips are placed vertically.

The flameproof plasterboards that you want place (three in this case) have been screwed to the vertical strips. These plasterboards surround the pillar and check the level of flameproof protection.

The flameproof plasterboards have fiber glass into themselves to avoid their disintegration because of fire