

MASONRY

PARTITION WALL (aluminum carpentry)

The partition wall is made of single hollow brick laid with plaster paste, on which are laid the anchors of the window frame. This carpentry is made of aluminum.

The partition wall has a base coat and a setting coat. Finally, the door frame is screwed, and then we place the joint cover strip.

The carpentry is made of aluminum lacquered, it has double glass and it is reinforced with wood like a skirting.