

SLOPED ROOFS

SLOPED ROOF (in process)

The structure is a sloped slab with IPN metallic joist, and double ceramic bricks deck. Over it, a compress coat has been spread with its reinforcing wire mesh.

Then, thermal insulation has been placed through extruded polystyrene plates fixed mechanically.

The upper surface of these plates is slotted to make easy the cover, in this case, mixed cement roofing tile.